WHY BE A SURVIVAL SWIM INSTRUCTOR

We market for you: We'll search and rescue clients, by saving their lives! We market and receive referrals for you and then send you the business.

You Plan your schedule with your students: We connect you with the clients, then you contact them to schedule the lessons and work around your schedule. This is great if you have a full-time job, in school or have other commitments. This position works for your needs.

No Insurance needed: We handle the liability insurance. We look after all the legal issues, and hold all insurance plans need for you.

We bill for you: We handle all the billing, marketing and customer service. We will communicate with your client if a problem may arise.
